LEG BROKEN IN FOOT BALL GAME

Young Rudisill is an ardent foot ball enthusiast and played in the game between the Gettysburg Scrubs and the Mercersburg Academy Reserves at the latter institution last Saturday. In the first rush he sustained a broken nose and, though suffering not a little from this injury, he went into practice against the larger and faster college team Tuesday afternoon.

The players had been put through an hour and a half's vigorous practice and, in order to give them still harder work, Coach Mauthe went into the game and carried the ball time after time, training the first team men to interfere and giving the Scrubs, with whom Rudisill was playing, some practice in tackling.

When the accident occurred Mauthe was carrying the ball and Rudisill, who had been chasing him, found that he could not catch the runner and stopped. He was suddenly bowled over by one of the first team men, acting as interference for Mauthe, and when the team lined up again the boy was found struggling on the ground, suffering intensely with pain at the left ankle.

"Shorty" Reed, the trainer, and several players carried him to the side of the field, where examination showed that there had likely been a fracture and Dr. H. M. Hartman was summoned. The physician responded promptly but the leg had swollen greatly in the meantime and it was deemed best not to attempt to reduce the fracture at once and it was accordingly left until the swelling had abated somewhat. Though suffering greatly from the injury Rudisill is bearing up bravely.

EUGENE B. SMITH

Former Emmitsburg and McSherrystown Man Died.

Eugene B. Smith died at the home of his brother, Annon J. Smith, in Hanover on Monday. He was aged 31 years 9 months and 1 day.

He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Smith, and was born at Emmitsburg. The family moved to McSherrystown some years ago, and later to Lancaster.

The young man was for several years employed in the office of the Hanover & McSherrystown Street Railway and later learned telegraphy in the despatcher's office of the Western Maryland Railway at Hanover. He left Hanover several years ago to accept a position as telegrapher with the Jersey West Shore Railroad, at Westville, N. J. About a year ago, on account of failing health, he was compelled to give up his position and spent some months in California and Colorado. Since then he has lived with his sisters, Mrs. Elmer Derringer, in Lancaster, and Mrs. John I. Lilly, in Hanover.

Funeral in Lancaster on Thursday.

HAVING TROUBLE

Franklin County Poultry Show May Cease to be Annual Event.

Eight members of the Franklin County Poultry Association responded Monday night to the call for a meeting in the court house at Chambersburg. The matter of holding a show this winter was discussed and this will be decided next Monday when the directors meet. But from the lack of interest shown by members it looks like no show is desired this year. The show last year caused a deficit in the treasury and the members had to stand an assessment to make up the loss.—Chambersburg Opinion.

NOTICE: due to being overstocked with apples we will be unable to buy any more this week at either the Biglerville or Gardner's plants. Will start buying again Monday, October 27th. Musselman Canning Co.—advertisement 1

WILL EXAMINE COUNTY PUPILS

County Physicians Appointed to Examine the Boys and Girls and to Investigate Conditions about School Buildings.

State Commissioner of Health Samuel G. Dixon has named the following medical inspectors to make inspections of the pupils in the schools of the four class districts in Adams county.

These inspectors will begin work at once. They are as follows:

Bendersville and Biglerville boroughs and Menallen township, Dr. William E. Wolff, Arendtsville; New Oxford borough and Berwick and Oxford townships, Dr. George H. Seaks, New Oxford; Butler township, Dr. D. LeRoy Merriman, Arendtsville; Cone-wago independent district, McSherrystown borough and Conewago and Mount Pleasant townships, Dr. George L. Rice, McSherrystown; Gettysburg borough and Cumberland and Straban townships, Dr. J. R. Dickson, Gettysburg; East Berlin borough, Dr. Eugene Elgin, East Berlin; Fairfield borough and Freedom township, Dr. N. C. Trout, Fairfield; Liberty township, Dr. J. E. Glenn, Fairfield; Union independent district and Mount Joy and Union townships, Dr. Harry Crouse, Littlestown; York Springs borough, Dr. E. W. Cashman, York Springs.

Many of the school districts of the county had a similar inspection last year and it was found that scores of the children were suffering from one or more defects. The sight and hearing were given special attention by the inspectors and then the returns on each pupil were sent to the proper authorities at Harrisburg who, in turn, notified the parents as to the defects found in their children. Many were wise enough to follow the suggestions made and thus to save their sons and daughters from further trouble of the same sort.

In addition to the examination of the pupils these inspectors will also be expected to make a thorough investigation about the school grounds and buildings, to inquire into the source of water supply and all the sanitary arrangements. Defects found here are also reported and the annual work is expected to do much to safeguard the pupils attending the public schools of the state.

SEVEN CASES

Scourge of Diphtheria Visits McSherrystown. Seven Ill.

The seven cases of diphtheria now in McSherrystown are all improving. They are as follows: Gladys Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Becker, Midway; Sterling Bair, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bair; Marie Kerrigan, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kerrigan, and her sister, Anna May, who is threatened with the disease; Virginia Becker, Stella Weaver, and Alvin, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Groff, Midway.

The Midway school taught by Miss Edith E. Folmar, was closed Monday and will be fumigated and all precautions taken against the spread of the disease. St. Mary's School has also been fumigated.

STOCK COMPANY

Loie Francis Stock Company to Play Gettysburg Next Week.

The Hanover Record Herald says: Loie Francis and her coterie of players opened a week's engagement at the Opera House last night by presenting before a large and appreciative audience, "The Child of Fate." Miss Francis was a former Biograph star, and her work on the stage gives her additional advantage to display her histrionic ability. The production was greatly enjoyed by all.

COUNTY REMITS ITS STATE TAX

And Receives in Return Seventy Five Per Cent of the Entire Amount. Pays One Fourth Cost of Straban Township Road.

Adams County has paid to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania her State tax for 1913, amounting to $11,479.43. Of this amount seventy five per cent was returned to the county. Next year the county is to receive the entire amount, which will be considerably greater on account of the more complete returns from the various assessors.

Upon the receipt of the county's share payment was made of one fourth of the cost of the new state highway in Straban township running from the farm of D. D. Schriver to a short distance beyond Hunterstown, something over two miles. The township pays another fourth and the state pays one-half of the entire amount. The county and township's shares were $8426.33 each and the state's $16,852.66.

The road is declared to be the best state road in Adams County. It was made from native copper stone with an asphaltum finish and is expected to be a permanent improvement for that portion of Straban township. It was built by Thomas Meehan and Sons.

With next year's increased revenues the county commissioners hope, as stated recently, to wipe out the floating debt of the county.

SWINDLED AT FAIR

Dr. Jeremiah Besore, Smithsburg, has sworn out a warrant for John Doe, who he claims has swindled him out of $1,000.

The doctor had gone to see the races on the Hagerstown Fair Grounds. It was in the grandstand that he was approached by an affable stranger who introduced himself as "Mr. Willard, Cumberland, in the real estate business."

The doctor had received a tip from a third party on a certain horse and he wished to back him for a considerable sum. Checks were drawn out for $1,000 each, the doctor's on the Smithsburg bank, where he has money, and "Mr. Willard's" on the Hagerstown bank. The bets were placed by the stranger. The horse they backed won, and when they asked for their money the fake bookmakers protested, saying that they wanted to see that real money was risked before paying. The doctor then made a trip from Hagerstown to Smithsburg and had his check certified.

The doctor produced his roll, and the stranger grabbed it out of his hand saying: "Here! I'll fix this up for you!" and disappeared. The men who worked the game are said to be from Chicago.

MAY BE PAID

State May Pay for Cattle if Condemned on Account of Disease.

Auditor General Powell may get an opinion in a day or so informing him that the insertion in the general appropriation bill of the item for reimbursement of farmers and butchers whose cattle were taken because of tuberculosis and other diseases is an ordinary expense of government. Bills to the amount of $47,000 are pending on this question, Powell having held them up until he got legal advice.

At the Auditor General's Department it was said that no official notice had been given, but that rumors were that the Attorney General has found the item legal.

SYNOD FROWNS ON ALL HAZING

At the meeting of the Maryland Synod in Hagerstown Tuesday resolutions were introduced by Rev. Dr. L. M. Zimmerman, Baltimore, expressing the approval of the synod of efforts being made to suppress hazing in educational institutions. The spirit of the resolutions was approved and they were referred to the committee on resolutions and will later be adopted. There was no specific reference to any particular institution.

Dr. W. A. Granville addressed the Synod in the interest of Gettysburg College. After referring to the success of the recent financial campaign President Granville outlined the forward movement which will be considered at the next meeting of the board of trustees, looking to the erection of new buildings. The number of new students he stated is 115, the largest number to enter at the beginning of any year in the history of the institution.

The report of the committee on Ministerial Education which was read by Rev. Luther Kuhlman, of the Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, showed that aid was granted during the past year to 19 students at Gettysburg, and to one student at the Lutheran Seminary at Breklum, Germany, amounting in all to $3,216.

CLOSE CALL

The keen sight and quick judgment of Charles W. Myers saved a little girl of about five years of age this morning from serious injury, if not death, when he freed her foot, which had gotten fast between the rail and the planking in front of the Western Maryland station, just as the train due here at 8:05 was pulling into the station. The little girl, whose name has not been learned, evidently had not heard the train coming for she was very peacefully and unconcernedly trying to dislodge the foot when Mr. Myers, who was standing at least a hundred feet distant, noticed that she was unable to get away from the track and immediately started on a run for the child, getting her away from the track with not more than fifteen or twenty seconds to spare.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The newly-elected directors of the Western Maryland Railway Company met on Tuesday in New York City for organization purposes, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Edward D. Adams, chairman of the Board; J. H. Fitzgerald, president; Lawrence Greer, vice president and general counsel; L. F. Timmerman, secretary and treasurer.

President Fitzgerald, who was elected to succeed himself, became chief executive of the Western Maryland on the first of January last. Since he assumed charge of the property, an extensive improvement program has been carried out at various points on the system, which has given the road additional facilities for the movement of its increasing traffic.

McSHERRYSTOWN

McSherrystown—The new addition to St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 24 x 28 ft., is now ready for plastering. There seems however to be a scarcity of plasterers in this section and work is delayed on this account.

With the approach of the hunting season the usual preliminaries are taking place. The old fowling pieces are being polished and new ones purchased. Squire V. H. Lilly, who has been securing licenses, used his full supply of blanks and was in Gettysburg Monday and secured a new series of numbers and licenses.

The Farmers Bank officials expect to occupy their newly renovated building by the first of next week. All work on the building is nearly completed. There still remains the placing of the lights and desks in the lobby; finishing some of the painting and the completion of the cement pavement. It will be one of the finest banks of the county when completed.

The festival held in the engine house by the Boys Band Saturday evening was a great success. Over $50 was cleared and several new instruments were ordered to be purchased at once from this fund.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE PREVENTED

Also Curable in Early Stages.
Time-Tested Treatment Proves Successful

It is a scientifically proved fact that consumption is absolutely preventable and, in early stages, is actually curable. Wherever consumption is at all prevalent, the germicidal and antiseptic properties of the remedy are at all times being used, and the germicidal and antiseptic properties of the remedy are at all times being used, and the germicidal and antiseptic properties of the remedy are at all times being used.

Of special interest, then, is the news that our local druggists now carry this preparation in stock and that the price is low enough to be within the reach of anyone—$1.00 the bottle or six bottles for $5.00. SENATE DEMANDS QUORUM

Bring Back the Absentees, Is Cry of Leaders of Both Parties.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Demands that senators either "resign or go to work," that absent members be brought back to Washington by the use of "any force that may be necessary," and that the "miserable pretense" of trying to do business without a quorum be ended, marked the opening of the senate.

Leaders on both sides joined in the demand that the "farce" of recent proceedings be ended. Senator LaFollette leading the fight for the enactment of the seamen's bill, began the attack on absentees, but it was taken up and vigorously endorsed by Senator Kern, Democratic floor leader, and by Senators Borah and Cummins, Republicans.

Cummins said the body had allowed itself to get into a "humiliating position," and Borah added that members should be kept in Washington and compelled to take up many important subjects.

"I am in favor of the exercise of all the powers at our command to bring a quorum here," declared Kern. "It would be most unfortunate for us to surrender to the absentees and give up work. It would be a confession to the world that the senate was unable to carry on the business entrusted to it."

His figures showed thirty-one Democrats in Washington and seventeen absent, and nineteen Republicans in Washington and twenty-eight absent.

A double roll call brought in only forty-five members and sergeants-at-arms began to scour Washington for absentees. Later all absent senators were telegraphed to return at once to Washington.

LAKE STEAMER LOST IN GALE

Eighteen Men Saved After a Hard Fight.

London, Ont., Oct. 22.—After battling for hours in a terrific gale in Lake Erie when the steamer Elphic owned by the Buckeye Steamship company, of Duluth, sprang a leak, Captain Collins was forced to run her ashore off Long Point.

He had barely done so when the steamer broke in two. The entire crew of eighteen men were saved after hard work by the Long Point life saving crew. The steamer carried 160,000 bushels of wheat.

ANAEMIC SINCE CHILDHOOD

How Miss Holmes Regained Her Health.

If you are anaemic, you need more iron in your blood, and the tell-tale symptoms are a pale face—colorless lips, ashen finger nails, poor circulation, and short breath, and more serious diseases are easily contracted when in this condition.

What Vinol did for Miss Yvonne Holmes of Fall River, Mass., it will do for every anaemic run-down person. She says: "I have been weak and anaemic since childhood, always had 'that tired feeling'. Tonic after tonic was tried with little or no result until Vinol was recommended, and after taking three bottles, my appetite and digestion have been improved. I do not suffer any more from insomnia, nor do I have distressing headaches as formerly, and I am stronger than I have been for years."

We ask every anaemic or run-down, weak person in this vicinity to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not do all we claim. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

Expert Says It Results in Exploitation of Resources.

IT IS AGAINST CONSERVATION

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—Taxation of coal in the ground was denounced as "opposed to all principles of conservation" and as "logically and economically wrong" at the session of the American mining congress, which opened its sixteenth annual convention in the Bellevue-Stratford.

The session was given over principally to the reading of papers upon "Taxation of Mining Property," followed by a discussion of the subject. R. V. Norris, a mining engineer, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., sounded the first objection to taxation. He said that none of the suggested or attempted methods of assessment has resulted "in an equitable valuation, fair and just to both the public and the owner of coal lands." He then decried "even moderate taxation" as against conservation, declaring:

"Its effect is to put a tremendous premium on rapid mining, almost regardless of ultimate recovery. These methods encourage the destruction of the poorer and thinner beds interstratified with the better ones, on account of the enormous penalty entailed in slower mining, and also encourage, by prohibitive penalties, the holding of lands in reserve for the future necessities of the people."

For these reasons, he said, it appears that taxation leads to the rapid and uneconomic exhaustion of the mineral wealth of the country, and puts a premium on premature and wasteful exploitation. The proper method of taxation for all minerals he urged, would be a tax on the value at the mine of each year's production at the local rate of taxation for that particular year.

He said it should include an assessment on surface lands, outside improvements and machinery, but not on any valuation of mine openings or inside improvements, incidental to the mining process and which after the exhaustion of the mineral ore "are of no value."

Mr. Norris recalled that his suggested method of taxation of coal lands "is clearly illegal" under the present laws of Pennsylvania, and would require special legislation to become effective.

It would relieve reserve lands, he said, from "present crushing burdens" and tend to the conservation instead of dissipation of the irreplaceable coal resources of the country by encouraging the complete mining of lands once opened, including all workable beds, large and small, rather than the opening of the best beds on all lands to obtain immediate returns and avoid the burdens of accumulating taxation, to the destruction of less valuable beds.

Referring directly to the taxation system in Pennsylvania, Mr. Norris said:

"The assessment of lands in the anthracite district of Pennsylvania is a good illustration of the difficulties inherent in attempting to arrive at a proper taxable value for such lands. Up to 1907 the assessed valuation in this region, while irregular, and, in many cases, unjust, were not so excessive as to create an unendurable burden of the industry, and they were not seriously resisted.

"In 1907 a general revision of the assessed valuation was attempted and the resulting assessments were so high that they were resisted in the courts under the assessment are still in litigation, and appeals have been filed from all the later assessments, with a resulting condition of almost intolerable chaos."

James W. Malcolmson, of Kansas City, Mo., a consulting engineer, said that the price at which a mining property is held should be the basis of taxation. If ore is not taxed in the ground, he suggested, a premium is placed on holding it unmined indefinitely. He believes in taxing dividends and profits, he said. He referred favorably to a 10 per cent tax on net profits on mining in South Africa and a 5 per cent tax on the gross output in Mexico. A delegate, having in mind the present chaotic government in Mexico, asked to whom the tax is paid now in that republic.

Two Linemen Killed.
Ebensburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—E. C. Thompson and G. W. Wiley, linemen, were instantly killed when a telephone line they had thrown over a pole came in contact with a highly charged electric light wire. Alvin Adams, freeman of the gang, was seriously injured when in an effort to save the men, he wrapped his coat around the wire and removed it. Adams' recovery is in doubt.

Find Snakes In Bag.
Altoona, Pa., Oct. 22.—Finding a leather traveling bag on a street corner, Patrolman Sherlock took it to the central station. When it was opened all hands began a grand rush for the exits, as half a dozen rattlesnakes inside began to uncoil. The bag was closed with a pole and then hurled in to the furnace fire.

Quake at Los Angeles.
Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 22.—A slight earthquake shook Los Angeles and vicinity. There was no serious damage reported.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggy and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur hair-remedy and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

SULZER AGAIN FIRES ON MURPHY

Another Exposure of Tammany's Alleged Methods.

HIS WIFE CHARGES THREATS

No Audit of $4,300,000 and Dismissal of Architect Angered Tammany Highway Contractors Crooked, It Is Charged.

In this chapter of the ousted governor's arraignment of Tammany Hall Mrs. Sulzer is quoted as saying that Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany, even threatened her, in an attempt to have her influence over him removed.

Mrs. Sulzer said she wanted to tell his version under oath during the impeachment trial, and that his counsel had gone so far as to outline the narrative, with the questions which were to have been asked, but Sulzer was prevented from going on record with his revelations because of a ruling of the court which barred testimony relating to "outside matters." Considerable of the former governor's statement would not have been germane to the articles of impeachment.

In a nutshell, here are some of the most important of the new charges made by Sulzer against Tammany:

1. More than $4,300,000 had been expended during the year before Mr. Sulzer took the office of governor on the certificate of the state architect of which there had been no proper audit. This resulted in the dismissal of the state architect, Hooper, from his office.

2. Senator Frawley, chairman of the committee which investigated Governor Sulzer, protested against the removal of Hooper from office.

3. Hooper told John A. Hennessy, the special investigator appointed by Mr. Sulzer, that his subordinates were appointed by Tammany Hall. Later Hooper pleaded for a chance "to explain things to the chief," and an order went to Albany from Tammany Hall to delay action against the state architect.

4. Highway contracts were fraudulent.

5. Political ward heelers, followers of Tammany Hall, had been placed on the pay roll on contracts for capitol work.

6. The removal of Hooper and the state superintendent of highways, J. Gordon Reed, brought the hostility of all the Tammany-controlled members of the legislature against the governor early in his administration.

7. Judge Edward McCall, of the public service commission, acting for Murphy, called at the executive mansion in Albany and threatened Mrs. Sulzer, saying that her husband would have to do certain things or he would be destroyed.

In the first section of the political revelations Mrs. Sulzer dwelt upon the manner in which emissaries from Tammany Hall made demands, invariably in the name of the "chief," as Murphy was known.

WILL WORRY TAMMANY

Sulzer, It Is Believed, Will Put Up Hot Fight For Assembly.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 22.—What will be the outcome of William Sulzer's race for the legislature? was the question foremost in the minds of politicians around the capitol.

It was generally agreed that he will make a great deal of trouble for the organization in New York. His fire will be directed especially against Aaron J. Levy, a candidate for municipal judge, and Alfred R. Smith, the speaker of the assembly, who seeks to succeed himself. Sulzer intends to invade their districts and attempt to square accounts for the active part they took in his impeachment. And, of course, in that fight he will oppose the Democratic organization candidates generally.

Even Sulzer's worst political foe conceded him victory in his own assembly district, the Sixth New York. They were inclined to regard the withdrawal of the Republican candidate as a trick intended to damage the Democratic party a great deal at the cost of a small concession. There was no doubt expressed that the Republicans will work hard for Sulzer.

Speculation was rife as to just what Tammany would do. It is known that all of the unused evidence in the impeachment trial is in the hands of the Tammany leaders and rumor has it that this material soon would appear in pamphlet form.

Thousands Cheer Sulzer In New York

New York, Oct. 22.—William Sulzer came back to New York and 10,000 persons gathered at the Grand Central station to meet him, went mad with delight. The deposed governor was in a stateroom all the way down, but his health came back fast when he saw the shouting mass of humanity waiting for him. Outside the station the crowd was even greater and Sulzer marching clubs with bands and horns blocked the way. Surrounded by an immense crowd and followed by forty automobiles, Mr. and Mrs. Sulzer went to the Broadway Central hotel, where they will make their home.

DAUGHTER OF REGIMENT.

Juanita, Rebel, Who Aspires to Be Mexican Joan d'Arc.

FIRST REAL TOUCH OF WINTER IS HERE

Gale Whips the Coast, Flooding Maryland Towns.

Shifting gales which whipped the middle Atlantic coast and the lake region had hooted their way to sea, leaving crisp, cool areas behind and promises of light snow in some sections. General frosts touched the south Atlantic region as far down as Florida and there was freezing weather in the Mississippi and Ohio valleys.

The eastern shore of Maryland was visited by a furious storm of wind and rain. Practically every town along the water front suffered severe damage from high water, the tide being the highest experienced in twenty years. In many places the water covered the streets from twelve inches to five feet in depth.

A new $20,000 concrete bridge near Easton was carried away, and during the height of the storm the Metropolitan Life Insurance company's building, in Easton, caught fire and was destroyed, with a loss of about $500.

Crisfield reported the water front flooded to a depth of three feet and persons were using rowboats to reach their homes. Fish and crab houses were destroyed and boats sunk or beaten to pieces.

Houses were flooded at Elkton, obliging the occupants to move out. At Salisbury several men, women and children, living in huts near a cannery factory, were rescued with difficulty in rowboats.

At Seaford, Del., the tide was such a height in the Nantuxet river during the storm that some small buildings and hundreds of cords of wood floated away. The stored stock in several of the factories was damaged and several hundred hogs were drowned. The loss is several thousand dollars.

REPORT SCHMIDT WAS SANE

New York, Oct. 22.—Hans Schmidt, who confessed to slaying Anna Amulter and dismembering her body, was sane when the murder was committed, according to the report of four alienists who examined him.

The report of the alienists was made public by District Attorney Whitman, who is preparing to bring Schmidt to trial.

Schmidt pleaded guilty when arraigned before Judge Malone. His counsel, A. G. Koebler, said his client would plead not guilty with the plea of insanity at the time of the crime, and this plea was entered on the record.

Schmidt told his counsel after the court proceedings that he is getting tired of the delay in sending him to the electric chair.

FOREIGNERS FEAR MEXICAN WRATH

Apprehensive of a Massacre Should Huerta Fail.

DICTATOR RAISES TAXES

Orders 50 Per Cent Increase in Tariffs and Many Merchants Will Be Forced Out of Business.

Mexico City, Mex., Oct. 22.—Terror-stricken by fears of a massacre if General Huerta is overthrown by the rebels, Spanish, French, German and English citizens are leaving Mexico as rapidly as possible.

Scores of Americans have left Mexico City in the last forty-eight hours, but other foreigners had little thought of departure, believing they were safe, until word was received that many of their fellow citizens were being held as hostages by the rebels at Torreon.

The foreigners are alarmed by reiterated reports that the United States intends to recognize the Carranzistas as belligerents. They were further alarmed by dispatches telling of a statement sent by General Carranza to Los Angeles, Cal., in which he declared that there would be no peace in Mexico while Huerta or any intriguing political party reigns.

Huerta's action in ordering a 50 per cent tariff increase has caused consternation among the merchants, many of whom say they will have to go out of business. The cost of living, which now is higher than ever before, will be heavily increased by the dictator's efforts to fill his treasury. The edict was issued by Huerta acting in the place of congress and approved by him as president.

SOUNDS GREAT BRITAIN

Washington, Oct. 22.—Developments in the Mexican situation assumed an international aspect when Walter H. Page, American ambassador to Great Britain, called at the British foreign office and is said to have made representations to Sir Edward Grey against the alleged anti-American attitude of Sir Lionel Carden, Britain's new minister to Mexico.

On the day that Huerta caused the arrest of the 110 deputies the United States looked to Great Britain for moral support. To the surprise of the president and his advisers, the day following the arrest of the deputies and the proclamation by Huerta declaring congress dissolved, Sir Lionel Carden presented his credentials to Huerta as minister to Mexico from Great Britain.

The administration has information which leads to the belief that Lord Cowdray is responsible for the latest attitude of Great Britain and the action of Sir Lionel Carden. Lord Cowdray is regarded as one of the foremost financiers in the world and has vast holdings individually and through corporations in Mexico.

Telegrams from Mexico City to the state department say that the work of preparation for the elections of next Sunday goes on apace, and it seems certain that the election will be held.

In a report to the department of state, giving a review of the political situation at the capital, O'Shaughnessy says that while no popular interest is manifested in the impending election, arrangements for it are being carried forward with every show of legality.

The official ballot shows the three tickets headed respectively by Gamboa, the Clerical nominee; Calero, Liberal, and Diaz, whose support is largely from the Cientifico element, that was the backbone of the government in the days of his uncle, Porfirio Diaz.

The Clerical party is the only one possessing an organization worthy the name. If Huerta lends the active support of his administration and the government machinery to Gamboa it is the opinion of observers in Mexico City that he will lead at the polls. Diaz has considerable support in the army, and the army is the branch of the government that will exercise the most direct influence upon the contest.

President Appeals to People When Law Makers Hold Up Big Loan.

Havana, Oct. 22.—In consequence of the refusal of the Cuban congress to convene in extraordinary session to consider the presidential message urgently recommending a new foreign loan of $15,000,000, President Menocal issued an appeal to the Cuban people declaring that he may be compelled to have recourse to extraordinary measures in the event of continued obstinacy on the part of congress.

MADE FOR YOUNG MEN

WE have a host of good things this year specially made for Young Men—new styles for College and Business Wear—not a single old-fogey idea about them.

These are the Clothes you want, and ought to have, if you want to be in style—they're right; and they're made right, by tailors who know more about making good Clothes—and stylish Clothes—than any one else in the business.

Genuine Schloss-tailored Clothes like these are always preferred by men who know good tailoring, and good values, and who want to be stylishly dressed. Come in and see the new things.
